FRIDAY PLENARY SESSION SPEAKER

DR. ROB RIENOW

Dr. Rob Rienow's most important ministry is loving his wife and leading his children to know God and love Him. Rob's mother led him to Christ at an early age. His parents divorced when Rob was in high school and God used that painful time in his life to give him a heart for young people and families going through dark times. Rob attended Wheaton College, then completed an MA in theology at Wheaton College Graduate School, an MDiv at Trinity International Divinity School, and a Doctor of Ministry in Christian Leadership at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary. He served as a Youth Pastor at Wheaton Bible Church from 1993-2004, and now serves there in the role of Family Pastor. He is the author of the book God's Grand Vision for the Home, published by Awana. Rob and his wife Amy have founded a ministry called Visionary Parenting (www.visionaryparenting.com) which inspires parents and grandparents to impress the hearts of their kids with a love for God, discipling them to live for Christ and equips churches to build biblical family ministries by developing home-centered, biblical strategies for reaching the coming generations for Christ. Rob and his wife, Amy, have 5 children and live in Wheaton, Illinois. Rob will be speaking on The Great Multi-Generational Commission.

FRIDAY SPECIAL PERFORMANCE

CHILDREN OF THE WORLD CHILDREN'S CHOIR SPONSORED BY WORLD HELP

The choir is comprised of orphaned and disadvantaged children from several different countries. Their high-energy and inspiring program will feature several songs, in both English and native dialects. Wright, Jr. Prior to joining the pastoral staff at Trinity United Church of Christ, Rev. Moss served as pastor of the historic Tabernacle Baptist Church in Augusta, Georgia. Under his leadership, Tabernacle was blessed, through Christ, to go from 125 members to over 2100 disciples. Rev. Moss received his BA from Morehouse College and the Master of Divinity degree at Yale University. He was awarded the FTE Benjamin Elijah Mays Scholarship in Religion and the Yale University Magee Fellowship. Rev. Moss has served as Guest Lecturer for schools such as Emory University, Dillard University, Howard University, Yale, Harvard University and Morehouse College.

Rev. Moss' first book, Redemption in a Red Light District, was published by Four-G in December 1999. His essays, articles and poetry have appeared in The African American Pulpit Journal, Sojourners Magazine, and the Urban Spectrum. The African American Pulpit Journal recently named Reverend Moss one of the "20 to watch" ministers and Belief.Net named Rev. Moss as one of the future religious leaders who will most impact the African-American Church.

Rev. Moss has preached across the globe, including South Africa, Bermuda, Puerto Rico and Egypt. Newsweek magazine cited Rev. Moss as one of "God's foot Soldiers" committed to transforming the lives of youth". Currently Rev. Moss serves as a frequent guest commentator on the Naomi Judd New Morning Show on The Hallmark Network.
